SHOT DOWN

Dreyfus' Lawyer Ambushed.

He Was On His Way to the Court.

Two Men Fired at Him With a Revolver.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

RENNES, Aug. 14.—Two men ambushed Maitre Labori, counsel for Dreyfus, and one shot was fired, hitting Labori in the back. M. Labori fell in the roadway. He is still alive.

Maitre Labori left his house alone for the court at about 6 o'clock this (Monday) morning. His residence is situated in the suburbs of the town, about a quarter of an hour's walk from the Lyceum, the route being along a solitary road beside the river Vilaine. He had reached a point half way on his journey, when two men, who had evidently been lying in wait for him, rushed out of a narrow lane and one of them fired a single shot from a revolver. The assassin was only a couple of yards behind their victim. The bullet struck Labori in the back, the wound man uttered an agonized cry and fell flat on his face. The assassin immediately fled through the lane from which they had emerged and both escaped.

At 7:30 o'clock it was announced that the bullet had entered the stomach; that there was no outward bleeding, and that the physicians believe that M. Labori will die from the wound.

A later story has it that M. Labori was shot in the temple by a man who fired a revolver at him outside the court, and that the assassin was arrested.

Only two or three laborers going to work witnessed the shooting of Maitre Labori. The spot was well chosen, as the murderers could not be seen by M. Labori until they rushed out upon their victim, the entrance to the lane being hidden by bushes. Moreover, they were afforded an easy means of escape by passing back through the lane, which led to the country. One of the laborers, named Patoux, who witnessed the shooting, said:

"As I was passing along the road I saw a tall man walking quickly in the direction of Rennes. He was on the towing path of the Nalutine. He was attired in a dark lounge suit, and wore a bowler hat. It was just as he reached the bridge crossing the stream falling into the Vilaine, two men, about medium height and wearing dark suits and round, soft felt hats, emerged from a rural path, entering the main road. One of them carried a heavy stick. They approached M. Labori from behind. Suddenly he drew a revolver and fired point blank at Labori. He was so near that it was quite impossible for him to miss."

"A sharp report was heard, and M. Labori threw up his arms and cried, 'Ho la la' (which is a common French exclamation), and fell flat upon his face. I and one of two others who saw the deed ran to his assistance, but the murderers had vanished down the lane. Help was immediately sent for, and the gendarmes quickly arrived, and soon afterward Madame Labori."

RENNES, Aug. 14.—The shooting of Labori leading counsel for Dreyfus, which occurred before the morning session of the Dreyfus court martial, was of paramount interest. The murderer apparently chose today for the attempt, because it was anticipated that Labori would crush Mercier, the former minister of war, with cross-questioning. News of the shooting caused an immense sensation in the court room, where the audience was assembled, awaiting the entrance of the judge.

The Dreyfus court martial reconvened this morning. Gen. Mercier and ex-President Casimir Perier were first on the stand. They were followed by Cavignac and Hanotaux, former ministers of foreign affairs, after which the court adjourned until Wednesday.

PARIS, Aug. 14.—The office of the Anti-Semite league in which Guerin, president of the league, and Max Regis, the noted Jew-baiter, sought refuge from arrest, is still besieged. The besieged men threaten to pour burning oil upon those outside.

PARIS, Aug. 14.—A dispatch from Lyons says the police have arrested a man named Galton Matine, an engineer, whose appearance corresponds with the description of the man who attempted to assassinate Labori.

RENNES, Aug. 14.—A correspondent called at the residence of Labori late this afternoon and was informed that the patient's condition had grown worse. His agony had increased and fever set in. It appears Labori received only yesterday two letters threatening that he would be shot but treated them, as he had treated others of a similar nature for months past, with contempt.

Salem Chamber of Commerce Gathering Data.

A Big Meeting Will Be Held When Engineers Come to Salem.

The Salem chamber of commerce is taking much interest in the showing before the board of government engineers who are charged with the duty of examining and reporting on the project for the purchase by the general government of the locks at Oregon City. It will be remembered that congress at its last session made an appropriation to defray the expenses of such examination, and the board of engineers, consisting of Major Heuer, Captain Harris and Captain Langitt, was charged with this duty.

Some time ago the Salem chamber of commerce instructed Secretary Thielson to take steps to bring about a meeting between the board of engineers and the people of the Willamette valley.

About the same time a circular letter was received from Capt. Langitt, who is stationed at Portland, saying in part that the board would be glad to receive any information regarding the acquisition of the locks; that a public hearing would be given by the board and all parties interested would be requested to be present. Secretary Thielson went at once to Portland and had an interview with Capt. Langitt, and after discussing the situation, the conclusion was reached that there would be no objection to having a public meeting at Salem as well as at Portland.

Secretary Thielson then wrote to all of the important towns in the Willamette valley, either to the mayor or chamber of commerce, asking them to cooperate in the movement, to the end that a good showing might be made before the engineers, in the matter of the desire on the part of the people that the government should take hold of the locks.

Favorable responses have already been received from several of the valley cities and towns. E. C. Pentland, secretary of the independence board of trade writes: "The board will willingly send delegates to your convention or do anything to secure free canal and locks at Oregon City." F. M. Wilkins, president of the Eugene board of trade, says:

"Our people here are a unit in favoring government ownership of the locks at Oregon City and have just mailed a strong petition to the United States engineers at Portland urging this matter, and I believe with united action throughout the state the thing desired can be accomplished."

In the mean time Secretary Thielson is gathering statistics from every available source as to the tonnage which would be affected by the proposed action of the government.

The closest possible approximation will be made and submitted to the engineers for their information. It is desired to thoroughly cover Benton, Clackamas, Lane, Linn, Marion, Polk and Yamhill counties. This involves an immense amount of work, as it has to be done from the foundation. No tables covering just the territory here involved have ever been formulated, and it has been discovered that much of the data which would naturally be available is very far from being reliable.

The cordial and energetic co-operation of every farmer and merchant in the Willamette valley should be given to the Salem Chamber of Commerce in this work.

The report of the engineers will depend on the showing made, and to a great extent, on the temper of the people and the interest shown in the matter.

Free locks would mean 50 cents per ton less on every pound of freight shipped into or out of the Willamette valley, whether by water or rail. The universal experience is that a reduction in freight charges on a competing line of water transportation forces a corresponding reduction in charges by rail.

Secretary Thielson will, in the near future, visit all the principal towns and cities of the valley and confer with the people, so that plans may be formulated for a united and effective effort to show the board of engineers that the purchase of the lock would be of very material benefit to a large portion of this state and would be highly appreciated by the inhabitants thereof—who are not, by the way, much given to asking for anything from the general government.

Mr. Thielson will start Tuesday by team on a trip to Dallas and Independence. After canvassing the towns which can conveniently be reached from here in that manner, he will take to the railroad and cover the territory thoroughly.

Street Improvement Notes.

Street Commissioner Frizell, E. F. Parkhurst and others living on the block are making some substantial improvements on Winter street in front of their property at their own private expense. It has been graded and some fine gravel is being put on. Considerable of this class of work at the expense of property owners is being done, to the great advantage of the city.

Commissioner Frizell is also rendering the public great service by taking out many of the useless approaches on small bridges, and filling the same with gravel. The latter is permanent, and will prove a perpetual saving of lumber and repairs, besides making more satisfactory improvements.

A first-class new sidewalk is being put down in front of Mrs. T. H. Hubbard "Armory" property on State street.

Summer Hotel Burned.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
RED BLUFF, Aug. 14.—The hotel at Tuscan springs near here was destroyed by fire. The over Sunday guests, besides employees were in the hotel at the time. Belle Makensier, an employee, lost his life in the flames after doing heroic service in rousing the inmates.

COL. ELI BANGS.

Novel Proposition of a Big-Hearted Eugene Livery Stable Keeper.

Eugene Daily Guard, Aug. 12.
Eli Bangs the popular liveryman and park proprietor will give a free picnic and dance to the volunteers next Friday, Aug. 18, at his park, formerly Meriau's. Mr. Bangs outlined the project to a Guard reporter this morning. The picnic will be under the direct management of E. R. Davis and W. A. Alexander, who have gratuitously tendered their services.

The present intention is to have a baseball game in the afternoon between a team of soldiers and one from the town boys. It is safe to say that if the volunteers sling hot balls as well as they fired hot lead at the "niggers," the town boys won't stand a ghost of a chance.

The ladies of the city generally are very enthusiastic over the proposed picnic, a number of them having already expressed a willingness to assist in giving a basket dinner at 6 or 7 o'clock in the evening. This will, in all likelihood, be done and it will certainly be appreciated.

In the evening a dance will be given in the park pavilion, a good orchestra having been secured and all arrangements made to make of this a most successful feature of the day.

As before stated Mr. Bangs desires it understood everything, including transportation and dancing will be free to the volunteers. The town people will be charged a small amount for transportation and for the dance. Mr. Bangs will provide good conveyances and plenty of them, and a large crowd is already assured.

Grip is slaying thousands of victims.
Dr. Miles' Nervine is curing thousands.
